

The George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, is seeking sources for experienced foreign language instructors with language proficiency equivalent to that of a native speaker for the following languages: (2) Hausa, (2) Swahili, and (2) Tuareg (Tamasheq). A working knowledge of English is also required. This requirement is expected to result in a contract period of one year with an option for up to four additional years of services.

Please be advised that no solicitation is available at this time; this notice is for information and planning purposes only. This is not a Request for Quotes and does not commit the Government to award a contract, now or in the future.

If the Government decides to issue a solicitation, a Request for Quotes will be available via the FedBizOpps web page at <http://www.fedbizopps.gov/>. It will be the quoter's responsibility to monitor the FedBizOpps web page for the release of any solicitation and amendments, and to download the RFQ and all attachments.

To be eligible for any future contract, prospective concerns must be registered in the Department of Defense Central Contractor Registration (CCR) at <http://www.ccr.gov>.

Interested parties are requested to send a short statement of interest to include full contact information, including an e-mail address, and statement of capability that demonstrates your ability and experience – where you taught and for how long - in providing language training at all proficiency levels in a university setting to multinational individuals to Ms. Melanie Hubbard at hubbardm@marshallcenter.org by Monday, 11 February 2008..
