GEORGE C. MARSHALL EUROPEAN CENTER FOR SECURITY STUDIES A GERMAN - AMERICAN PARTNERSHIP program on terrorism and security studies (ptss) ptss is a four-week resident program that supports the marshall center's focus on evolving transnational threats and challenges.
the program seeks to identify and address the complex issues arising from the intersection of terrorism and non-state actors.
its unique approach enables participants to develop an understanding of the global context in which transnational terrorism operates.

english language enhancement course (elec) these courses are designed to improve participants' english language skills, especially their ability to communicate at a professional level on security topics.
instructors tailor curriculum and vocabulary to each of the individual courses.

senior executive seminar (ses) the ses is for serving top-level national security, commerce, and environmental leaders.
the program begins with a week-long seminar, followed by three-day workshops throughout the year.
