The program is designed to prepare international military and civilian students who already have years of professional experience for executive positions in the public and private sector.

THE PARTNER LANGUAGE TRAINING CENTER EUROPE (PLTCE)

PLTCE, a NATO accredited Partner Training and Education Centre, offers advanced and specialized classroom instruction in Arabic, English, French, Persian-Farsi and Russian to more than 400 U.S. military and NATO/partner attendees each year. Included in this are faculty professional development courses in language testing and classroom instruction, and assessment according to NATO Standards.

ALUMNI PROGRAMS

Alumni programs offer tools to keep alumni engaged, informed, and involved in the network. The members-only alumni website GlobalNET (<https://members.marshallcenter.org>) provides access to course materials and offers free access to numerous research databases, and contact information for all alumni in the network.

Communities of Interest (COI): COIs offer an opportunity for alumni to return to the Center for continuing education, and an opportunity to reconnect with other alumni from all over the world who are in their field of work.

Alumni Scholars Program: This is a competitive program to conduct in-residence research at the Marshall Center. The scholarships are available to all alumni, regardless of work status. The program includes a fully-funded five weeks in-residence to do research on a security topic.

Outreach Networking Event (ONE): ONEs are held approximately 30 times per year in capital cities across Europe and Eurasia. ONEs bring together local alumni, staff and faculty of the Marshall Center, as well as U.S. and Germany Embassies. All alumni, regardless of their service country, are welcome to attend these events.

Regional Alumni Forums: Regional Forums bring alumni from select geographic regions together to discuss relevant topics. Alumni participants are competitively selected by the Alumni Programs Department. Applications are solicited directly from individual alumni unless directed otherwise by embassies.
